

Adolfo Peters

Adolfo joined DBB in 2013. Having lived and studied abroad in South America, South Africa, the United Kingdom and Japan, Adolfo brings a variety of knowledge and experience to the firm.

Adolfo was born in Wales, but raised in Canada and Bolivia. He studied at the Bolivian Catholic University and received a Licentiate in Law degree in 2002. After moving to South Africa with his family in 2003, he attended the University of Pretoria where he received his LLM in International Law. In 2006, Adolfo settled in Canada where he began his studies in law at the University of Calgary. While there, he received the Provincial Court Judges Award of Merit for exceptional contributions made to Student Legal Assistance (SLA). He continues his involvement with SLA as a regular volunteer lawyer.

Upon graduating, Adolfo received the Dean Michael Wylie Social Responsibility Award for significant contributions to the understanding or resolution of social or human rights issues.

After being called to the bar in 2010, Adolfo went on to practice as an independent associate with the firm Hildebrand Wilde until joining Dunphy Best Blocksom LLP in September 2013. Adolfo is committed to obtaining the best results for his clients in the most efficient and collaborative way possible.

Outside of work, Adolfo enjoys spending time with family, watching movies, reading and working out.
