

Catherine Gerrits

Catherine Gerrits articulated with a boutique oil & gas law firm in Calgary in 2004 and clerked at the Tax Court of Canada in Ottawa in 2005. Prior to joining DBB in September 2015, Catherine spent several years working with several well-known National and Calgary based law firms in their taxation and wills and estates groups.

Catherine works with individuals, families and business owners in respect of their tax and estate planning matters, and provides them practical, cost-effective solutions that meet their needs and helps them achieve their goals.

Catherine received her law degree from the University of Alberta in 2004 and currently volunteers with The Adult Recreational Choir Society of Calgary. Catherine can be found running in and around Calgary pursuing half-marathons and marathons, and also enjoys her community gardening.
