

Mike Anderson

Mike Anderson articulated with DBB and joined the firm as an associate in 2006. Mike's approach favours finding quick and practical solutions to clients' problems, with a focus on minimizing their level of stress in a cost effective manner. He uses his specialized knowledge to assist his clients as they navigate situations and processes that can be very stressful.

Mike received his law degree from the University of Alberta in 2005.

He is a sports and music enthusiast, which means that when Mike is not at the office, he's often at an arena or concert venue somewhere around the city
