

Family Law Associate

Full-Time · Downtown Calgary, AB

Dunphy Best Blocksom LLP is seeking an accomplished Family Law Associate to join our well-established practice in downtown Calgary. This is an opportunity for a lawyer with a strong foundation in family law to work alongside experienced counsel, and build a rewarding career within a firm that is committed to excellence in client advocacy.

THE OPPORTUNITY

You will carry your own diverse family law practice—including divorce, parenting, support, and property division matters—with regular appearances before the Alberta Court of King’s Bench and Court of Justice. The role offers genuine autonomy in how you manage your files, supported by experienced partners and a capable support team.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Member in good standing with the Law Society of Alberta (or eligible for immediate admission).
- Minimum of three years’ post-call experience practising family law.
- Demonstrated courtroom advocacy skills and comfort with contested litigation.
- Strong legal drafting, research, and analytical abilities.
- Proven ability to manage files independently while contributing to a collegial team environment.
- Excellent interpersonal and client-relations skills, with a reputation for professionalism and integrity.

WHY DUNPHY BEST BLOCKSOM

- A respected, full-service firm with a longstanding reputation in Calgary’s family law community.
- Supportive collegial culture with direct mentorship from senior practitioners.
- Meaningful caseload with opportunities for professional development and advancement.
- Competitive compensation, comprehensive group benefits, Health Spending Account, and salary commensurate with experience.
